

Auris Medical Holding AG (Nasdaq: EARS, the “Company”) announced today that it has received notice from the Listings Qualifications Department (the “Staff”) of The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”) indicating that, due to the Company’s continued non-compliance with the minimum $1.00 bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2), the Company’s common shares would be subject to delisting unless the Company timely requests a hearing before the Nasdaq Hearings Panel (the “Panel”). Accordingly, the Company today requested a hearing before the Panel, which request has stayed any delisting or suspension action by Nasdaq pending the hearing and the expiration of any additional extension period granted by the Panel following the hearing.

As previously disclosed, on July 31, 2018, the Company received a letter from the Staff indicating that the minimum bid price for the Company’s common shares had closed below $1.00 per share for a period of 30 consecutive business days and, in accordance with the Nasdaq Listing Rules, the Company had been granted a 180-day compliance period, through January 28, 2019, to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement. The Company did not timely regain compliance prior to January 28, 2019, and was not eligible for a second compliance period, which resulted in the Staff’s issuance of the recent notice to the Company.

At the hearing before the Panel, the Company intends to present its plan to evidence and thereafter sustain compliance with the minimum $1.00 bid price requirement set forth in Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2); however, there can be no assurance that the Panel will grant the Company’s request for continued listing or that the Company will be able to evidence compliance with the applicable listing criteria prior to the expiration of any additional extension period that may be granted to the Company.

Auris Medical Announces Receipt of Nasdaq Notice

- Hearing Requested to Present Compliance Plan

Zug, Switzerland, February 8, 2019 - Auris Medical Holding AG (Nasdaq: EARS), a clinical-stage company dedicated to developing therapeutics that address important unmet medical needs in neurotology and central nervous system disorders, today announced its receipt of notice from The Nasdaq Stock Market LLC ("Nasdaq") indicating that the Company did not meet Nasdaq's January 28, 2019 deadline to regain compliance with Nasdaq Listing Rule 5550(a)(2) due to the bid price per share for its common shares remaining below $1.00. Further, Nasdaq determined that the Company was not eligible for a second 180 day period to regain compliance since the Company did not comply with the $5,000,000 Stockholders' Equity initial listing requirement for The Nasdaq Capital Market. The Notice states that, unless the Company requests an appeal, Nasdaq intends to suspend the Company's common shares and remove them from listing and registration on Nasdaq.

Accordingly, the Company today requested a hearing before the Panel, which request will stay any delisting or suspension action by Nasdaq pending the hearing and the expiration of any additional extension period granted by the Panel following the hearing. At the hearing, the Company intends to present its plan to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement and to request an extension within which to do so. In the interim, the Company's common shares will continue to trade on The Nasdaq Capital Market under the trading symbol "EARS".

"We believe we have a plan to regain compliance with the minimum bid price requirement," stated Thomas Meyer, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Company. "We look forward to presenting our plan to the Panel, which will include a commitment to effect a reverse share split, if necessary. To that end, with the planned relocation of the Company's domicile to Hamilton, Bermuda, the Company will be in a position to implement such measure in a much quicker and more cost-efficient way than under Swiss corporate law."

About Auris Medical

Auris Medical is a Swiss biopharmaceutical company dedicated to developing therapeutics that address important unmet medical needs in neurotology and mental health supportive care. The company is focused on the development of intranasal betahistine for the treatment of vertigo (AM-125) and for the prevention of antipsychotic-induced weight gain and somnolence (AM-201). These projects have gone through two Phase 1 trials and will move into proof-of-concept studies in 2019. In addition Auris Medical has two Phase 3 programs under development: Sonsuvi[®] (AM-111) for acute inner ear hearing loss and Keyzilen[®] (AM-101) for acute inner ear tinnitus. The Company was founded in 2003 and is headquartered in Zug, Switzerland. The shares of Auris Medical Holding AG trade on the NASDAQ Capital Market under the symbol "EARS."
